Passage 3

A study presented in proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences, USA, indicates that broccoli, grown under the right conditions, contains sulforaphane glucosinolate (SGS), a substance that may boost the body’s natural defense systems against cancer and even kill cancer cells. But you would have to eat pounds of broccoli to get enough SGS to be effective. Continued food research by John Hopkins University, Baltimore, and the USDA, however, found that three-day-old broccoli seedlings contain a concentrated amount of SGS -- 20 times the amount found in broccoli -- so only an ounce provides the same benefits. Sold as BroccoSprouts, the seedlings are grown under controlled conditions to ensure SGS content, and can be used on salads, sandwiches and omelets for a “zingy” taste. They have been patented by John Hopkins University, and 19 growers nationwide are licensed to grow them. BroccoSprouts are available in select grocery and health food stores nationwide.

52. The best heading for this passage is ___.
   1. Baby broccoli may fight cancer
   2. Broccoli is found useful
   3. SGS is important for the body
   4. Cancer cells can be killed

   3. research title
   4. health food store
60. According to the passage, the SGS in an ounce of young broccoli seedlings ____.
   1. is sufficient for the body’s needs
   2. equals that in 20 ounces of broccoli
   3. is enough to give a zingy taste
   4. is useful if concentrated

Passage 4

Sometimes just “saving” in general is not enough incentive to keep families on the budget track. You need a goal to get started. To use a diet analogy, it’s easier to lose 10 pounds when your high school reunion is around the corner. A goal not only gives a family something to reach for, it makes a savings plan short term.

Knowing you don’t have to give something up forever makes the sacrifice easier. Once you’ve reached your goal, you can abandon your strategy or apply those savings to a new object.

That approach worked for Cynthia McIntyre, who launched a search for extra savings after she spotted an antique table that fit perfectly in her living room -- but not in her budget.

McIntyre went over her checkbook carefully and realized she was buying 10 books every month. A lifelong reader, she couldn’t wait to rush out and snap up a new release. “It was a $400-a-year habit,” she says. The worst part was, many of the books didn’t live up to the reviews and McIntyre gave them away. Now she gets the latest bestsellers from the local library. “Reading them a little later doesn’t spoil the story,” she concludes.
61. The word “incentive” (line 1) means ___.
   1. power                   2. strength
   3. motivation              4. willingness

   3. will get what you want more easily
   4. do not have to give up your intention
66. The phrase “That approach” (line 8) refers to ___.
   1. setting a new objective
   2. reapplying the strategy
   3. searching for extra savings
   4. working toward a goal

67. Cynthia McIntyre was trying to save up money for ___.
   1. hardcover books
   2. the latest best sellers
   3. an antique table
   4. a kitchen gadget

68. It can be inferred from the passage that Cynthia McIntyre is a ___.
   1. bookworm
   2. great shopper
   3. librarian
   4. book reviewer

69. Cynthia achieved her goal because she ___.
   1. no longer gave away books
   2. gave up her reading habit
   3. seldom visited the local library
   4. temporarily stopped buying novels

70. The purpose of the passage is to ___.
   1. suggest a way to achieve a goal
   2. promote the value of money
   3. support a search for savings
   4. discourage unnecessary spending
